

Our Angels are Watching Over Us
VELASQUEZ
MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP SOCCER TOURNAMENT

9/30/1994 – 8/1/2013

Angel was full of life, shy, yet an energetic goofball who was passionate about everything he did. He graduated from Las Vegas High School class of 2012. He was studying criminal justice at CSN as well as a known member of Project 150 Youth Council. Angel also played soccer with Rush Soccer Club. Angel's heart and soul was dedicated to the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, Explorer Program where he served as Captain. Angel dreamed of becoming a Police Officer and one day, Sheriff.

11/30/1991 – 10/3/2014

Jackie was always full of life, adventurous, and an energetic individual who had the courage and ambition to achieve anything she set her mind to. Jackie attended Valley High School and was an honor roll student. On her down time, Jackie played the violin, ran marathons, read books, and spent time outdoors. Despite how girly Jackie was, she joined the Army at the age of 17 years old. During her time in the Army the evidence was made clear, that Jackie was a natural born leader.
