PROJECT 150 Youth Council provides scholarship opportunity * application deadline extended

LAS VEGAS – The Youth Council for Project 150, a local nonprofit that helps homeless, displaced and disadvantaged high students, is offering several scholarships to attend a Nevada college, university or accredited vocational training institute. The scholarship application deadline has been extended to May 16.

“As students finally reach that goal of graduating high school, we want them to know the journey has just begun,” said Senia Roybal, Project 150’s youth program coordinator. “We hope the scholarship opportunity helps them pursue higher education and opens a path to a successful future.”

Scholarship award levels range from $500 to $2,000 per student. High school and college students are eligible to apply if they meet the academic and community service requirements.

Scholarship interviews are scheduled to take place May 20. Scholarship award notifications will be sent by June 1 via email.

Project 150 will hold a celebratory scholarship awards luncheon on June 15 at Texas Station Hotel and Conference Center.

Visit www.Project150.org to apply for a scholarship or call 702-721-7150 for information about scholarship sponsorship opportunities.

About Project 150 Youth Council

Youth Council members assist in fulfilling Project 150’s mission to meet the needs of homeless, displaced, and disadvantaged high school students by providing food, clothing, school supplies, and special requests. Members participate in monthly meetings, leadership training, promote higher education opportunities, cultural awareness, mentoring, community involvement, scholarship fundraising, agency partnerships, and career & workforce readiness with a pay-it-forward attitude. The members serve over 1,500 cumulative community volunteer hours annually - See more at: <http://www.project150.org/youth-council>
